Property type:	Institutional - Education
Property sub type:	Elementary School
Criteria:	A/1/1&C/3/3
Status code:	3CS;5S3
Reason:	Excellent example of an LAUSD elementary school representing the post-1933 Long Beach Earthquake period of school construction. The school opened in 1922 on land purchased from early city pioneer/developer George Huntington Peck; however, like many LAUSD schools it was damaged and remodeled following the 1933 earthquake. Due to subsequent alterations including replacement of windows and roof material, it does not retain sufficient integrity to be eligible for the National Register.

Reason:	Originally the home of San Pedro pioneer George Huntington Peck, and one of the oldest residences in San Pedro. The residence was moved from Signal Street overlooking Timms' Point to this location in 1915. It was placed on top of an existing one-story commercial building, and converted to a fourplex. Peck did not live in the house after it was moved to this location. Due to substantial alterations, relocation of the property from its original site, and loss of association with Peck, the property no longer conveys its significance.

Context 1:

Context:	Residential Development and Suburbanization, 1850-1980
Sub context:	No Sub-context
Theme:	Early Residential Development, 1880-1930
Sub theme:	Early Single-Family Residential Development, 1880-1930
Property type:	Residential
Property sub type:	Single-Family Residence
Criteria:	A/1/1
Status code:	7SQ
Reason:	Appeared to be an excellent example of early residential development in San Pedro pre-dating the surrounding development by a decade or more. However, it appeared to have been altered to an unknown extent, and work was ongoing at the time of the survey. Building permit research indicates that in 1990 the building was relocated to this site from 730 North Garfield Avenue, Pasadena and remodeled. Therefore, due to the relocation and apparent extensive alterations, the property does not represent early residential development in San Pedro.
